SEE PLAY THURSDAY

Dramatics Students Give Three-Act Comedy, "Come Out of the Kitchen" To Aid Junior Class to Finance College Yearbook.

The three-act comedy, "Come Out of the Kitchen," by A. E. Thomas, will be presented at the College auditorium on Thursday night, January 15, at 8 o'clock. Students are reminded that this is a date-free night.

Tickets for the play may be purchased from members of the Tower staff, or representatives from the various classes and organizations of the College. There will be no reserved seats. The price of admission is fifty cents.

The play is given by the dramatics department of the College and the proceeds are to be used in financing the publication of the 1925 Tower which is published by the College junior class.

The cast of characters for the play includes many of the favorite amateur players of the city and is under the direction of Miss LaVeta McClanahan, instructor in dramatics.

The play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," is a royalty play and adapted from the story by the same name which is written by Alice Duer Miller. The play has had a run on Broadway and was a decided success at the George M. Cohan Theater, New York.

Rehearsals for the play have been progressing for some time and Miss McClanahan says that a sparkling comedy treat is in store for the audience on January 15.

The cast of characters includes: Olva Danglefield, Alias Jane Ellen—Mabel Raines.

Elizabeth Danglefield, alias Araminta—Louise Peery.

Mrs. Falkner—Laveta Epperson.

Cora Falkner, her daughter—Alice Dadds.

Amanda, Olvia's Black Mammy—Julia Caldwell.

Burton Crane, from the North—Robert Nicholas.

Thomas Lefferts, statistical poet—Vern Gusewell.

Solon Tucker, Crane's Attorney and Guest—Clair Slonecker.

Paul Danglefield, alias Smithfield Russell Allan.

Randolph Weeks, agent of the Danglefields—Perry Eads.

The time of the play is present and the action takes place in the Danglefield mansion in Virginia.

Praise For Publications

For the past few years, the College has been sending copies of the Tower to the various high schools of Northwest Missouri. Just before Christmas, the College sent out a number of the 1924 Towers.

Acknowledgements and praise for the Tower have been received from many schools. One superintendent writes: "It is a very effective agent in interesting the high school students in higher education."

The Green and White also comes in for its share of praise. One correspondent writes, "It has been a pleasure for me to watch the growth of the Green and White."

Such interest manifested by the district comes as a challenge to S. T. C., to make its 1925 publications better than ever.

Former Student Dies

Many alumni and former students of S. T. C., will be grieved to learn of the death, November 22, of Chloe Lee Power, a former student of this school.

Miss Power was born at Princeton, Missouri and was graduated from the high school at that place. Since attending S. T. C., she has taken work at the W. M. U. Training school at Louisville, Kentucky, graduating from that institution last May. She was on her way to Chicago to serve as a foreign missionary when death came.

Francis L. Skait, a former student, is one of the grade supervisors in the schools of Liberty, Missouri. He was formerly superintendent of the Agency High School. Mr. Skait delivered an address to the teachers of Buchanan County Saturday January 3. The subject of his address was leadership.

Bill Mapel, former student of S. T. C., and now attending the University of Missouri, spent a week during the holidays visiting with friends in Maryville.

Miss Ruth Lowery To Assist In English

Miss Ruth Lowery of Fort Collins, Colorado, has been secured by the college to fill the vacancy in the English Department, caused by the resignation of Miss Winn. For the past five years Miss Lowery has been teaching English in the East Side High School, Salt Lake City, Utah. Previous to this she taught for a number of years in the English Department of the high school at Monte Vista, Colorado. For three summer terms she had charge of part of the English work at the State Teachers College, Greeley, Colorado.

Miss Lowery spent the early part of her life on a cattle ranch, near Fort Collins, where her parents had moved as pioneers to the western state. Due to the fact that school was in session but two months during the year, much of her early educational training was received through the instruction of private teachers who came to her home.

Later she attended high school at Fort Collins. She then entered the State Teachers College, at Greeley, Colorado, where she secured a scholarship. She took her A. B. degree from this college. She took her M. A. degree from Chicago University in 1920. Miss Lowery wrote her Master's thesis on a subject chosen from the American Literature field.

When questioned as to her hobbies, Miss Lowery immediately answered, "Tennis, reading, and music. But of course since I am from the west, I am fond of all of the out-of-door sports and games."

During the winter quarter, Miss Lowery will have charge of English 10, and two classes of English 16. Miss Dykes has charge of the Journalism and the History of English Language classes. Contemporary Drama will be taught during the winter quarter by Miss Painter. Miss Bowman continues with her regular work.

Girls Manage Sales Of Christmas Seals

The College as a unit conducted a sale of Christmas seals for the Tuberculosis Association. The work here was in charge of Miss Manley and her class in girl scouting. So efficient was the sale that the proceeds amounted to about twice as much as in former years. The net amount of the sale of Christmas seals to students and faculty was $61.72.

To add a spirit of rivalry the class was divided into five patrols. Patrol I succeeded in selling the most seals, with Patrol III coming in as second. The girls in Patrol I, with Lettie Wagenblast as leader, were as follows:

Pauline Manchester, Myrtle Argo, Christine Graff, Wavie McKee, Rosetta Froman, Doris Hook, Ruth Barnes.

A prize in the form of a pennant was offered to the group of girls selling the most seals. The group of girls who won it instead of having the pennant awarded them, showed a fine spirit by requesting that the money for the pennant be left in the fund.

Since Nodaway County has a local organization it is privileged to keep half the proceeds of the Christmas seal sale. Much credit is due Mr. Phillips and Mr. Cooper of the College, and Mr. Leslie Somerville, county superintendent, for their work in organizing the county. They serve on the county board and Mr. Phillips is a state director of the Missouri Tuberculosis Association.

Thelma Brown, who is doing practice teaching in the first and second grades, is working out a project on the different modes of living. The houses were donated by Miss Fisher's hand work class. All subjects are correlated in the plan, which will take the little folks two weeks to complete.

Mr. Thompson, rural school inspector for the Northwest District, will be in Buchanan County, January 12. Mr. Thompson has conducted four demonstration meetings in the above county. According to Fred E. Roach, County Superintendent, all have been decided successes.

McE Fisher, Marie Dunham, and Kate Crenshaw, former students, are teaching in the grades at Maysville, Mo. Miss Fisher teaches primary, Miss Dunham, the second and third grades, and Miss Crenshaw, the fourth grade.

The girl scout class is organizing girl scout troops in the public schools. The organizations will continue throughout the summer months.

Mr. Annett visited his family in Galena, Illinois, during the holiday.

We Wish You A Happy New Year

The Green and White Courier, under its new management, begins the new year with a resolution to endeavor to keep up the high standard set by the former management and to strive to make itself more and more interesting and valuable to its readers. If it is to reach the maximum of efficiency as an organ of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College, it must have the co-operation of the entire faculty the alumni association, and the student body of the College. It is your paper. Help the management to make it a success. Let us make 1925 the best year in the history of the Green and White Courier.

Talk And Music At Assembly Hour

Dr. Clough Speaks and Conservatory Students Appear on Program.

At the first assembly of 1925 Dr. Clough made his initial appearance before the student body. He gave a short talk on the development of physical education. He outlined the various nations of the past in promoting physical training.

Dr. Clough says that our present motives in the development of physical education are the greatest of all times. Our motives are the correction of bodily ills and the training of our boys and girls of today to become physically fit citizens of tomorrow.

Following Dr. Clough's talk a program was given by the students of the Conservatory of Music. The numbers were as follows:

Piano solos

The new equipment for the Foods Laboratory was installed during the Christmas recess. Two electric hot plates have been attached to each tile-top table. An electric range has been installed, in addition to the coal and gas ranges, making possible the study of three types of fuel. The old desks have been removed, leaving the center of the room for recitation chairs, which will be replaced by tables in the spring to be used in the spring foods contests.

Miss Terhune spent the holidays with her parents Dr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Terhune at New Albany, Indiana.

Paul Jones Breaks Arm

Coach Paul R. (Pete) Jones has been carrying his right arm in a sling lately, due to an accident in the gymnasium.

On the opening day of school, after the holidays, Coach Jones was putting his physical education class through some strenuous exercises. They were diving over a "horse," a piece of gymnasium equipment. One of the boys failed to make the proper dive and missed; Coach Jones reached out to catch him, to save him from a hard fall.

The student fell on the coach's arm, breaking the small bone and bending the large one. He was taken immediately to the St. Francis Hospital where X-ray photographs were taken and attention given to the injured arm.

Miss Smith was at her home in Liberty, during the holidays. She went shopping in Kansas City and while there, saw Otis Skinner in Sancho Panza, and also the film production of "Peter Pan."

Much interest is manifested in the coming contests which are to be held February 11, 12, 13. Students who have been here before recall the excitement over the contests in former years and they are expecting even more enthusiasm this year.

S. T. C. Kittycats Defeat Cameron

Maryville Girls Win First Game of Season With Score of 44-26.

The girls' basket ball team won the first game of the season by defeating the Missouri Wesleyan sextette by a score of 44 to 26, Wednesday night, December 17. This game was the first test of the season and showed prospects for another victorious year.

The starting lineup of the game, the combination of M. Raines and Bruckner at forwards, Todd and Shuler at center, and Cook and New at guards proved to be the best working combination for the Kittycats. The half ended with a score of 28 to 6.

In the last half, Miss Manley, coach, substituted Dow and E. Raines at forwards. Ferri Murray at running center and Chandler and L. M. Raines at guards. This new lineup worked very well together.

The score of the game follows:

Kittycats (44)	F.G.	F.T.
Bruckner, f	10	0
M. Raines, f	4	2
L. M. Raines, f	5	2
Manchester, f	1	0
Dow, f	1	0
Todd, f	0	0
New, g	0	0

Mo. Wesleyan (26)	F.G.	F.T.
Gross, f	1	0
Allen, f	6	0
Daniels, f	4	4
Shepherd, re	0	0
England, g	0	0

Following the game, the Kittycats entertained the Cameron girls with an informal party at the Residence Hall.

The Jean MacKenzie Chapter of the Westminster Guild of the First Presbyterian Church met Wednesday evening, January 7, with Miss Irene Goff at the home of Mrs. Emery Airy. The subject for study was "Beneath the Smokestacks in China." A business meeting was held after the program. Light refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Irene Taagarden, Mrs. Emery Airy, Katherine Kempler, Marjiam Gray, Katherine Gray, Lucy Allen, Lorena Gault, Claire Davis, Ruth Lawrence, Gertrude Belt, Dorothy Murray, Annette Stiltwalt, Willetta Todd, and Irene Goff.

The district winners will go to Jefferson City to decide who is the state champion speller.

The college is not concerned as to what county wins in the district meet but it wants the district champion to be the state champion and bring the honors to Northwest Missouri.

David Max, a former student, who is teaching at White Pine, Montana, has written an interesting letter in which he tells of his work in the west. Hunting and dancing, he says, are the chief amusements of the young people there. He adds that he would be grateful to Mr. Loomis for any information relative to the "psychology of deer."

"Pete" Jones, "Shorty" Lawrence, and the following members of the basketball squad went to St. Joseph Saturday, January 3, to witness the Hilliard-Kansas University game: Frank Crane, Gordon Joy, Forest Smith, Ray Blomfield, Duane Whitford, Russell Clup, and Denton Peoples.

The corrective physical education class under the direction of Miss Manley is giving corrective exercises for good posture to the children in Miss Kolt's room.

Dr. Clough says that he was happily surprised in what he found here and that everything is extremely pleasant.

Dr. and Mrs. Clough are making their home at the Newman Club.

Miss Bowman spent the Christmas recess at her home in Wathena, Kansas and with her brother in St. Joseph, Missouri.

Pres. Lamkin Speaks At H. S. Dedication

President Lamkin went to Chillicothe the last Wednesday to speak at the dedication of the new junior-senior high school there. Mr. John R. Kirk, president of the State Teachers College at Kirksville, was also a speaker at the dedication.

The new junior-senior high school was occupied by students for the first time Monday morning, January 5, 1925. The whole community of Chillicothe and especially the Board of Education of that city is to be complimented on such a complete educational plant. The building alone cost $300,000, and required sixteen months for completion. It is said to be the finest high school in northern Missouri. Up to the present time $30,000 have been spent for equipment besides what was moved from the old building, which is to be used as a grade school.

The three story building contains fifty-six rooms and five hundred student lockers. The library, which will be in charge of a competent librarian, is furnished for a reading room accommodating ninety students. The auditorium, which includes a balcony, will seat twelve hundred people. The stage, sixty by eighty feet, will be used as a basket ball court and gymnasium. The Home Economics department consists of six rooms, the food laboratory being finished in white tile. There is also a splendidly equipped cafeteria which will be operated under the Home Economics department. Grounds are now being laid out for track, football, and other athletics.

The teaching staff will consist of about twenty-five teachers for the senior high school and about six for the junior high school.

BEARCATS WIN 39-11

By a Score of 39-11 the Bearcat Five Defeat Missouri Wesleyan Team on Cameron Court—Fumbling Proves the Weak Point of S. T. C.

The Bearcats, playing whirlwind basket ball, captured the long end of a 39-11 tally from the Missouri Wesleyan quintet, Friday night at Cameron.

The game began with Crane and Peoples at forwards, Blomfield at center, and Joy and Smith at guards. A few seconds after the game opened, Crane dropped the first count that started the Bearcats' rush. Wesleyan was seemingly bewildered and at no time during the game were the Bearcats in any danger of being given the short end of the score. Coach Lawrence's team scored thirteen points before Wesleyan hit the iron ring for two points. The half ended 24-4.

In the second half much substituting was done on both teams; Coach Lawrence giving all of the ten men who made the trip a chance to show their wares and Coach Collins trying to find a working combination. The efforts of the latter were unsuccessful, however, and the score piled up for Maryville. The game closed with a 39-11 score.

The score clearly shows the power of offense and the almost impregnable defense of the Bearcats. Their greatest weakness seemed to be fumbling, a weakness Coach Lawrence hopes to overcome by putting his men through hard work before the Kirksville games, January 22-23.

Zest was added to the game by the fact that Coach Lawrence was pitting his team against that of his own Alma Mater.

The following is the summary for the Maryville team:

	FG	FT
Peoples, f	5	1
Crane, f	4	0
Blomfield, c	6	0
Joy, g	1	0

Subs: Pierpoint, 1fg; Houston, 2fg; Chick, Willoughby and Culp did not score.

HUMAN NATURE.

Did you ever ride a train that was any slower than the Wabash coming back to Maryville last Monday night? Weren't you sort of glad to get back to old S. T. C. again in spite of the glorious time you had at home during the holidays? As we got off the train we couldn't help but recall those old familiar lines which start, "Breathes there a man with soul so dead—?"

We growl at the instructors for giving us such long lessons, we almost revolt at the thought of writing editorials for the Courier, we hate the idea of testing for unknowns in Chemistry, but down in our hearts we rather like it. We wouldn't be here if we didn't. We are glad to get back and hear Mr. Miller make the announcements in assembly and have Dr. Keller expound the scriptures to us on Sunday mornings. We are glad there is a date rule, else some of us who are more attractive would have a terrible time trying to appear brilliant in class next day. We all grumble about our hard lot but if we were lying on a bed of roses we should probably crab because some of them were faded. It's just human nature.

ACKNOWLEDGE ERROR.

An exchange calls attention to an error in the Green and White Courier of December 8 in the article advertising "The Covered Wagon." The article stated that the picture was being shown for the first time in Northwest Missouri, with the exception of St. Joseph.

The Courier acknowledges the error and regrets the mis-statement.

Russell McCoy, a former student, who has been teaching near Fairfax, is sick in a hospital in St. Joseph. The dormitory "bunch" sent him a beautiful bouquet. He formerly worked at the Residence Hall.

Kappa Phi Issues Quarterly Magazine

"Distaff" is the name of the new quarterly magazine, the first number of which has just been issued by the Kappa Omicron Phi sorority of the college. Anna Houston is the editor and Ora Mae Condon is the assistant editor. The contributors are Miss Anthony, Miss Teagarden, Merle Ford, Mary Ruth Curfman, Dorothy Rowley, Gladys Hahn, Julia Hankins, Frances Hahn, Louise Manifold, Lena Johnson and members of the Beta Chapter of Warrensburg State Teachers' College.

The purpose of this quarterly magazine is to make it possible for the members of the Kappa Omicron Phi to keep in closer touch with each other and to strengthen the bonds of fellowship.

The departments in the magazine consist of the National News, Editorials, Personals, News from the Field, History of the Kappa Phi Organization, and Letters.

The cover design for the first issue was made by the girls of the Alpha chapter of the college.

The first issue consists of one hundred and sixty copies, each containing twenty-five pages.

CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS.

Mr. Wilson, in a recent interview, stated that with the work completed this year in the Physics and Chemistry departments and the improvement program that is contemplated, S. T. C. will be able to offer as much in these two departments as any college in the state. A much needed hood with ventilating fan, for freeing the laboratory of poisonous and offensive gases, has just been completed. A new desk accommodating twenty students in the laboratory, was installed during the fall term and is now being used by the advanced Chemistry students. In a short time more compartments are to be built, in which will be placed the chemicals used by the advanced classes. Part of the Chemistry lecture room is to be partitioned off and used as a balance room.

Mr. Wilson says that as soon as arrangements can be made new courses will be offered in the Chemistry department. Some of the courses under consideration are Physical Chemistry, a third quarter of Organic, Quantitative Analysis, Household Chemistry, and Water Analysis. New equipment and apparatus is continually arriving for both the physical science departments. Two motor-generators are now awaiting installation in the advanced Physics laboratory. The cost of operation of much of the electrical equipment of the Physics department was decreased by the installation of the school's own power plant, so that much more experimentation is now possible.

Mr. Gardner announces that a string quartette has been added to accompany the college chorus. This quartette will consist of two violins, a viola, and a cello.

I have to live with myself and so, I want to be fit for myself to know, I want to be able as days go by, Always to look myself straight in the eye.

I don't want to stand with the setting sun,

And hate myself for the things I've done,

I don't want to keep on my closest shelf,

A lot of secrets about myself.

And fool myself as I come and go,

Into thinking that nobody else will know

The kind of a woman I really am;

I don't want to dress myself up in sham,

I want to go out with my head erect,

I want to deserve all men's respect;

But here in the struggle for fame and self,

I want to be able to like myself.

I don't want to look at myself and know,

That I'm bluster and bluff and empty;

I never can hide myself from me;

I see what others may never see;

I know what others may never know;

I never can fool myself, and so

Whatever happens, I want to be

Self-respecting and conscience-free.

The Deposit Protects You

"WHY MUST NEW CUSTOMERS make a deposit before you serve them?" a friend asked the other day.

"To protect you and us," we replied. "We'll explain."

"We, as a public utility, are expected to serve the general public. Kilowatts can't be sold C. O. D.; they must be sold on credit. Most of our customers, like you, are good for their bills. The deposit rule wasn't made for you.

"But there are customers whose credit may be questioned, and since the law won't discriminate, we are obliged to ask every new customer for a small deposit. This protects you and us.

"Without such deposits, we might lose heavily through folks' leaving town and overlooking our bills. To make up these losses, your charge for service would have to be larger.

Supreme Court Upholds
Custer of K. U. Head

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 10.—The Kansas Supreme Court today upheld Governor Jonathan M. Davis and the board of administration in the ousting of E. H. Lindley, Chancellor of the University of Kansas.

The decision upheld the finding of the district court at Lawrence this week to the effect that the Chancellor held his position at the will of the governor and board.

The district court held that it was without jurisdiction to hear the case on its merits.

The ousting of Lindley came at the end of a long conflict between the governor and the Chancellor. The Chancellor was charged with "playing politics" and insubordination.

Dr. W. L. Burdick, named by the governor as acting-Chancellor, will immediately assume the duties as head of the University of Kansas.

ARE WE GETTING THE RIGHT MEN IN COLLEGE?

"You are wasting your time here. You might make good in your father's business or in some other line. I think you have ability. But I advise you to get out of college."

That little speech was made by a college president to a student who had been in the institution for nearly two years. The institution was not crowded; the student wasn't a loafer, and he hadn't been spending money heavily on the sidelines of college life. But he had demonstrated that he was out of place in the institution. He could not maintain an acceptable standing in the intellectual life of the school.

There are no doubt many such in the colleges. It was of these that President Hopkins of the Dartmouth college spoke the other day when he declared that too many men are going to college. Too many of the wrong type, it must be said. President Hopkins saw the need in a democracy for well trained minds, an "intellectual aristocracy." College education, he said, is a definite privilege, not a universal right. Those not adapted to the work of the college should not be allowed to hold back the students who learn readily from books.

To the class of college students who either are limited intellectually or who are not adapted to college work, there should be added the even larger classes who have no serious purpose in the training; whose aim is to attain social status; to make a display of wealth to the embarrassment of other students; to "go in" for athletics, "functions" and the like. These it is difficult to weed out. Often they are able to "get by" in their studies; their parents have means and influence; perhaps an important financial relation to the institution.

Meanwhile, the colleges are crowded; their facilities are limited. Many who desire the higher training and are capable are kept away. Going to college ought to be made easier for these. It ought not to be made harder for those who either cannot or will not thereby confer benefit either on themselves or society.—Kansas City Star.

WHAT ADVERTISING DOES FOR ME

"Advertising keeps me reminded that I ought to dress well; that I ought to shave every day; that I am not making the most of my opportunities; that I lack the essential graces of a gentleman, being ignorant of just the proper thing to say when I spill a cup of tea in a lady's lap; that I ought to have a bank account and insure my life for the protection of my family; that I am missing one of the keenest joys of life unless I familiarize myself with the best of music through the ownership of a phonograph; that my home needs repainting and redecorating; and that I ought to eat more oranges and raisins.

"American advertising is the heaven which is persistently enforcing the idea of prosperity, enlightened selfishness, liberty, democracy, confidence, and other ideas in our program of destiny. These ideas are expanding our industries and lifting our people to a higher standard of living.

"Advertising, through its standardizing influences, is making us look and act alike. To achieve distinction in the future, a man will have to think better than his fellows."—William Feather.

College Notes

The American Campus is a new publication on the exchange desk. This magazine is unique among college publications, and is a pioneer in its field. Its purpose is to present a condensed and colorful review of the most interesting thoughts and movements on more than 500 college campuses in the United States. The plan will be something like that of the Literary Digest—to collect, condense, and classify and set forth briefly the most interesting opinions, ideas, and chronicles of college publications of America.

In the budget for the State Teachers College, Cape Girardeau, appears the item of a request that the legislature appropriate $125,000 for the erection of a new gymnasium and the purchasing of a new athletic field.

Fifty-four students were graduated from the Teachers College at Valley City, North Dakota, in December. Miss Murphy who was enrolled in S. T. C. last quarter is a primary critic teacher in the college at Valley City.

A student council has been organized at the State Teachers College, Kirksville. Through the student council an annual Christmas party has been instituted as one of the all college social affairs of the school year. Questionnaires have been sent out to the students in order to get the attitude of the student body towards parties, etc.

The December 2 edition of the Capaha Arrow, the official publication of the State Teachers College, Cape Girardeau, was dedicated to the Sagamore, year book of the college. Every article which appeared in the paper boosted the sale of the year book.

Results of psychological tests which have been given the members of the Freshman class of Drury College, Springfield, indicate that the class is made up of two groups, the good students and the poor students. The average students are found in the freshman class of that institution in limited numbers, as indicated by the results of the tests.

The students enrolled in the home economics department of the State Teachers College at Warrensburg make costumes for plays. These costumes are rented to the various high schools of the district for a charge of twenty-five cents per costume.

More farmers are sending their girls and boys to college according to a report worked out by the State Teachers College, Cape Girardeau. Farmers' sons and daughters head the list of students enrolled. Students whose fathers are merchants, are next. Industrial people come third, and student whose fathers are salesmen are fourth in representation.

EUREKAN

The Eureka society made plans for the spring contest at their meeting January 8.

Essie Ward, president, outlined the policy of the society in a short talk. Miss Ward says, "The society should strive to develop the talent within its ranks. A literary meeting is not merely a place to spend an hour being entertained, but the society should offer an opportunity to its members for development."

The program next week will be devoted to the study of authors of Northwest Missouri. The authors to be reported are O. O. McIntyre, Breckenridge Ellis, Homer Croy, and Louise Platt Houck.

"Yes I did run fast enough," he replied,

And that will be the story of a lot of folks who put off saving money until they are well along in years. They may save as fast as they can but they will find they did not start soon enough.

The Stroller

By ????

THE STROLLER.

The Stroller first of all wishes everybody a Happy New Year. He also wishes several other things: for instance, he wishes he knew just which faculty member it was who, after saying she had been up the "last four nights until one o'clock, calmly announced, "Oh, anybody can get engaged!"

Then, he wishes he knew whether Miss Dykes will allow an item about herself to find its way into this column now that she is the instructor in Journalism. If he thought she would, he would wish that he knew how far she expects to follow in Mrs. Ford's (Miss Winn's) steps. He observes that she has taken Miss Winn's room, her desk, her place at the table, and her class in Journalism. What next?

The Stroller wishes he knew whether Howell England was thinking of cross word puzzles when he said, "asteroids" meant a tribe in Africa.

The Stroller cut three classes the other day that the Courier might not be neglected. He observed and recalled the following unusual things:

"Ikey" Eads—not talking to the girls;

Mr. Miller—not making a few announcements;

Mr. Hake—not busy;

"Dock" Dowell—studying;

Dr. Keller—not smiling;

Leo Halasey—without an opinion; Miss Smith—looking serious;

"Bosco" Barkley—with his hair marcelled;

"Slats" Selemman—without an armful of papers;

Mr. Leeson—not looking for a new type of bacteria;

Raymond Jackson—walking to school.

It is heaps of fun, the Stroller thinks, to go to Spanish class. The other day Kenneth Fouts used the form of the indirect object where he should have used the direct.

"Mr. Fouts," said Miss Martin, "could you possibly love anybody indirectly?"

"Yes, Miss Martin, I think I could," answered Kenneth.

One day when the Stroller entered Spanish class a little late he heard Miss Martin say as she turned to one of the students, "Let us pray for the souls of the soldiers."

The student in an agonized tone responded, "Oh, Miss Martin, I just can't!"

The Stroller was about to sneak out for fear he would be called upon to lead the prayer when he discovered they were merely translating.

Oh, yes! Before the Stroller says farewell he wishes he knew whether Robert Birbeck understands that he is sitting in the "get-married chair" at Perrin Hall.
